Pastor Deb's Message

Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me will live, even though they die. Everyone who lives and believes in me will never die." John 11: 25-26 CEB

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I keep hearing it over and over again. It simply won't leave my brain. I hear it first thing in the morning and at every quiet moment. The kids at youth group at Union Ave. sing it every Tuesday afternoon. Heavenly Sunshine, heavenly sunshine, Flooding my soul with glory divine, Heavenly Sunshine, heavenly sunshine, Hallelujah! Jesus is mine.

Easter is just a few weeks away now and the signs of spring and new life are everywhere. Robins are singing and crocuses are poking up through the ground. The day is longer and we are slowly changing from winter coats to spring jackets. While the earth springs to life only once a year, what a joy to know that for believers in the Resurrection of Jesus we can look forward to new life every day.

Every day we live in the assurance of our own new life and resurrections. Every day we live with the knowledge that our Savior has promised that we will never die. Every day the Son of God fills our souls with eternity. As we look forward to Easter morning let us remember that our new life has already begun.

It's Tuesday again and I will no doubt sing the song one more time. It will stick in my brain for a day or two. But praise God, the sunshine of eternal life is already ours. Hallelujah! Jesus is mine!

Happy Easter, Pastor Deb

Pastor Brenda's Message

It has been busy with the churches and school. I have been thinking about Faith a lot. It seems that everything I have read in the last few days has been on that subject. Faith is trusting in what we can't see. As humans we have a hard time with this. We want to see things for ourselves. We do not see with our spiritual eyes. Our eyes see the prowling lion. Faith see Daniel's angel. Eyes see the storms. Faith see Noah's rainbow. Our eyes see all of our faults. Your Faith sees your Savior. Yours eyes see your guilt. But your Faith sees his blood. Jesus has done this for us all. We need to look at our Faith with new eyes of the Spirit.

Faith means being sure of the things we hope for and knowing that something is real even if we do not see it. (Hebrews 11:1)

This Lenten season let's all check our faith. What do you see? Where are you in your faith? Let Jesus show you through his eyes of love and forgiveness. This is the season. HAVE A BLESSED AND HAPPY EASTER! REMEMBER IT IS ABOUT THE LAMB NOT THE BUNNY!!!!

BRING A FRIEND TO CHURCH

During this Lenten season consider inviting a friend or family member to join you for worship. It has been proven in studies that Advent/Christmas and Lent/Easter are two times in the calendar year when people are most receptive to being asked to attend church. Perhaps God will open their hearts to hear your asking. And perhaps God is talking to you, too.

MISSION AMBASSADORS FOR WESTERN PA CONFERENCE

We will be visiting four mission sites, then teaching about them at Mission u, held each July at California University of PA. we will also be available to speak to any church that invites us to share.

As we visit the mission sites this spring, we would like to make a nominal contribution to each from our charge. Each is doing important work in furthering God's Kingdom. Please prayerfully consider making a contribution to the mission of your choice. We will gladly acknowledge you and/or your organization to the mission(s).

We will make mostly cash contributions in that they allow the missions to obtain what they need most.

The missions, all United Methodist, we will visit are:
